Tincaps

Community Game Night at the TinCaps – Staff members gave out “Blue’s” (mascot for the FACES Leadership program) baseball cards, supervised a leadership toss game and helped children create their own Super Leader pictures. The Center was highlighted in a PSA on the Jumbotron and Blue made a special appearance to get our name out there in front of 5,000 fans.

Take Back the Night

Staff joined and walked with IPFW student organizations to make a statement against sexual violence, taking back the night from those who use it as a cloak to victimize.

Staff joined various nonprofits to dance and raise awareness for violence against women. Over 500 people danced and rose up to call attention to violence against women and children.

One Billion Rising

The Center was as an agency partner with Fort4Fitness to raise funds and encourage healthy lifestyles in Fort Wayne.

Immigration Rally

Several staff spoke and attended the comprehensive immigration rally in front of the Allen County Court House.

Dia de los Muertos

El Dia de los Muertos “The Day of the Dead” is a collaboration event between the women of the Latina support group and the Fort Wayne Museum of Art . The alters at the event are decorated to honor the memory of those who have passed. Many of the women in our Latina support group can not travel home to be with their families during their time of grief so this event helps honor their need to grieve those losses.

Let Her Sing

Staff attended a women’s only event put on by Center supporter, Jessica Crew, to empower and inspire women of all ages. A portion of the proceeds were donated to the Center.

Pride March & Festival

Staff, volunteers, and students involved with the Center’s GSA attended the 2nd Annual Pride March and Pride Festival.

Holiday Tea House

Hosted an English Tea House as part of the Woodland – Williams holiday home tour to educate the public about the Center and its programs.
